SUN POST-HERALD

A PLACE IN THE SUN

Look out, West Park — the Lions are coming on Oct. 19

The Lions are coming to Cleveland's West Park neighborhood on Oct. 19.

No, they're not the circus variety. The Lions Clubs of Northeast Ohio will host a district meeting at 6:30 p.m. in the Green Room at Gene's Place, located at the Kamm's Plaza shopping center at the corner of Rocky River Drive and Lorain Avenue.

Kevin Barrett tells me that Lions clubs "bring people together for the benefit of their community to make a difference in the lives of others." He said Lions are the world's largest service club, with nearly 1.38 million members in 45,000 clubs in 208 countries and geographic areas around the world.

Since 1917, Lions clubs have aided the blind and visually impaired, as well as making a commitment to community service and to serving youth.

Anyone 18 or older can join the Lions. Leo clubs are available for those younger than 18 who are interested in a service organization.

For more information, contact Barrett at (440) 779-1025 or kevinbpepper@aol.com.

Board members are Les Ackerman, Willie Cunningham, Heidi Herzog-Dietz, Nicole Krejci and Bob Weisenseel. Alternate board members are Gabe Dery, Joe Neelon and Bob Rennette.

QUILT SHOW — There's still time to enter the Reflections of Nature Quilt Show sponsored by the Cleveland Metroparks.

Entry fee is $8 per quilt and each person is limited to two entries. Applications must be accompanied by a non-returnable photo of the quilt. Applications are due Oct. 14. The show will be Nov. 12-13 at the Rocky River Nature Center.

All quilts must have a North American nature theme.

Prizes/ribbons will be awarded to the top three quilts in the following categories: large quilt, medium quilt, small quilt, EarthWords Nature Lover's Quilt Block. Additional prizes will be presented for best of show, viewer's choice, judge's choice, best hand quilted and honorable mention. Best of show winner will receive a new Bernina Activa 3 Series sewing machine, courtesy of Abigail's Quiltery at Grand Pacific Junction in Olmsted Falls.

For more information on the quilt show, call (216) 635-3200 or visit cleveland-metroparks.com.

SOMETHING TO FLIP OVER — There was a grand unveiling ceremony for the Family Literacy Involvement Program on Oct. 11 at the West Park Branch of the Cleveland Public Library.

Vicki Beggiani said the FLIP kids consist of a book and an activity to help families enhance literacy activities at home.
